Breaking the cycle of addiction

We provide free group therapy for adults in Hertfordshire over the age of 18 living with any type of addiction, substance or behavioural. From small beginnings in May 2000, we now have hubs in Stevenage, St Albans, Watford and two charity shops. In that time, we have supported over 6000 people to overcome their addiction, equipping them with the tools to sustain that recovery in the real world. Our counsellors all have lived experience in recovery, enabling a practical understanding of individual needs.

We will ensure that anyone, regardless of their individual or group characteristics, can get treatment for their addiction and are given support that takes account of their unique background and any complications this may cause for them during their time at The Living Room. We will reach out to community groups, develop better cultural awareness in our services and focus on LGBTQ+ and Black, Asian and Minority Ethnic visibility within our organisation.
